Code of Ethics to Stop Plagiarism & Malpractices in Research Work

Agrasen Mahavidyalaya has made it mandatory for all faculties and students, who are taking up research, major or minor, that there should be absolute sanctity in the work and no trace is malpractices ad plagiarism is allowed what so ever.

Hence it is the moral accountability of the institution to make the faculties and students awareness of their responsibility while doing any particular research and to maintain academic integrity. Institution is sincerely determined to stop plagiarism and malpractices. Hence it has established a mechanism as per the regulations and guidelines of the UGC (for Promotion of Academic integrity and prevention of Plagiarism in Higher education at every level).

AIMS AND OBJECTIVE -

- i. To establish institutional system through continuous training to ensure a responsible conduct during the research work, assignment, project work, dissertation and thesis, for the promotion of academic integrity and to refrain from the plagiarism.
- ii. To create consistent awareness towards the fair conduct of research work, project work, thesis, assignment, dissertation, promotion of academic integrity- and prevention of misconduct like plagiarism in any kind of academic study among teachers, students and the researchers.
- iii. To inculcate a system in order to trace any kind of plagiarism and to set up a full-proof system to stop plagiarism and punish the faculty, student or any other employee of institution, who commits the unethical act of plagiarism

The Practices, which are acknowledged as plagiarism:

1. Stopping any other researcher in obtaining free access to the reference materials ; i.e. cutting the pages of any particular article from the Library copy of any research journal.
2. Quoting any substantial or whole section of any other person's research paper, article, report, etc. as an assignment, even if that paper or other work is cited as a source in the bibliography or list of references (complete plagiarism). This also includes any article or essay traced on the internet.
3. Theft of any other researcher's notes as such.
4. Not mentioning the author or other source for one or more sentences, phrases, code, arguments, thoughts or formulae included in research work, assignment, software, or other research material (this is considered to be a substantial plagiarism);
5. Obtaining or trying to obtain any particular kind of academic mileage by non-academic means such as threats or bribes.
